Hi Thelma,

We don't have points assigned for Honors classes. We hope students will take rigorous classes if they are available to them, but if we learn in the school profile that an Honors option is not available, we won't hold that against an applicant. Not moving on to AP in a later year when they might be capable of doing so would be a clue that maybe they weren't operating at the "honors level" back in grade 9/10, but that's a different variable.

I hope this is helpful,

Philip
