Thanks ... I'll make this revision. In addition, I think our emails crossed ... I just sent a revised version incorporating Stephanie's suggestions. Please let me know what you think of that version. Thank you.

Hey Geoff,

Hope all is well. I'm going to concur with my colleague Board Member Loreda. I don't know that what's written accurately explains the historical significance of the new body & what that means for representation for generations to come. I'd also ask that we remove "who is just 19-years old". I don't know that that phrasing will bode well with some community members. I think instead the phrasing should be, "At 19, Board member Triston Ezidore, became the youngest elected public official in the history of Los Angeles County and the first Black male to serve on the Board. The son of Vietnamese and Jamaican immigrants, Ezidore, a Culver City High School graduate, Triston will also serve as the Board's Clerk for the coming year". I do think it's equally as important to include the dignitaries that were present to witness history being made. I was sworn in by Congresswoman Sydney Kamlager, got official recognition from LA County Assessor Jeffrey Prang, but drew attendees like LA City Councilmember Mike Bonin, Culver City Vice-Mayor Yasmine-Imani McMorris and Councilmember Freddy Puza etc.

Thanks,
Triston
